

When the Chips are down

What you Gonna do, when the chips are down?

Now that chips are down,

Win if you can, give if you must;

Ain't nobody but yourself to trust;

Help yourself, to hell with the rest,

Even to foster parents, who now don't love you best.

What you gonna do when the chips are down?

Now that chips are down,

Aim for the goal, shoot to kill;

If you don't do it, then other one will;

Though time ain't easy, people ain't fair,

But BSNL got to fight for its rightful share.
