Subject: Committee constituted to scrutinize alleged discrepancies in Question/Answer of LICE for promotion to JAO grade – reg

Ref: (i) Recruitment Branch letter No.9-1/2016-Rectt dated 16.11.2016
(ii) SEA section letter No. 4-34/2016-SEA dated 18.11.2016

R/ Madam,

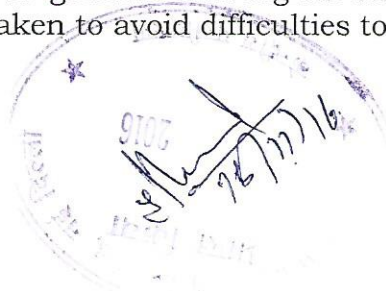

We want to draw your kind attention towards above mentioned two letters wherein it has been communicated to the field units that the result of LICE, for promotion of Group 'C' employees to the Grade of JAO, might be reviewed because a committee has already been constituted to scrutinize the discrepancies alleged in the question paper/ answer of the said LICE. Therefore, no action is to be taken with regard to issuance of promotion orders in respect of successful candidate, who have already been sent on training, on the basis of Recruitment branch letter no. 9-1/2016-Rectt. Dated 05.08.2016, till further orders.

In this regard, we are having the following suggestions:

- (i) Any review of the result after the recommendations of the committee is considered should be limited to only the unsuccessful candidates. The results already declared should remain untouched. (It is learnt that earlier also the same action was taken by the Recruitment Branch)
- (ii) Those who are currently under training should be allowed to complete the training without break.
- (iii) After completion of training they should be given look-on duty as JAOs instead of asking them to join parent cadre.

2. We request that our genuine and logical suggestions may please be considered and necessary measures be taken to avoid difficulties to the successful candidates.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Rakesh Sethi)

General Secretary
