Sr. General Manager (Pers),
BSNL CO, New Delhi

Subject: Consideration of re-allotment requests of JTOs who were promoted by BSNL order dated 30.3.2011 but could not join due to status quo ordered by Hon'ble High Court of Madras - reg

R/Sir,

BSNL had ordered promotion of around 2000 JTOs as SDEs vide its letter No. 2-15/2011-Pers.II dated 30.3.2011, under 67% seniority cum fitness quota. Subsequently, the Hon'ble High Court of Madras, had ordered status quo to be maintained till disposal of a petition filed before it. Although most of the JTOs had joined their promoted posts by this time, around 300 JTOs, who had represented for either change of Circle or change of SSA/Station and waiting for favorable consideration of their request were caught unaware and could not join later in their promoted posts.

2 Now, the Hon'ble High Court of Madras is reported to have dismissed the petition on dated 2.4.2013, paving the way for those stranded JTOs to join their promoted posts. It is quite expected that during the past two years there would have been changes in the vacancy position in the cadre of SDEs in all the Circles/SSAs. It would be, therefore, just and natural that the requests of these JTOs for change of Circle/SSA/Station could be favorably considered now.

3 Since the preparatory work for promotion from JTO to SDE under 67% seniority cum fitness quota for subsequent years is under progress, we request that the request for change of Circle/SSA/Station of the left out JTOs, who are senior to those who are now being considered for promotion, may kindly be reconsidered and necessary orders to that effect issued at the earliest. The Circles may also be advised to consider the requests of these JTOs, if any, for modifying the earlier postings orders.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Rakesh Sethi)

General Secretary.
